

Barclay classically trained with a Regional Ballet Company in Virginia for 8 years. In addition to classes, she attended summer intensives at the School of American Ballet in NYC, and also studied with The Pacific Northwest Ballet in Seattle as well as the Boston Ballet. A few of her dance accolades include The Nutcracker: Sugarplum Fairy, Snow Queen (& every role in between) , Swan Lake: Odette/Odile, Sylvia: Sylvia the huntress, Coppelia: Dawn solo, friend of Swanhilda, and Cinderella: The Winter Fairy.

Barclay and her family moved to Fredericksburg in 2009. She currently works at FISD Primary School as a speech language pathologist and is a proud mother of two sons, age 13 & 15. We are more than excited to have such a wonderful ballet teacher as part of our staff and dance family.
